Sunday 12 April 2020,

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord- Year A

Dear Parish Family,

Well here we are about to celebrate Easter: the last Supper, the Crucifixion and the Resurrection. Let's not lose sight of the Resurrection in the midst of our troubles at the moment.

I feel like Lent has been quite the challenge this year on the one hand we've had so many elements of life and society to deal with from Corona Virus and so many losses and on the other we have had so many real opportunities for prayer, for charitable and kind deeds, and opportunities for penance. We've learnt some new ways to be and we've reconnected with some of the old.

How amazing is it to think that we are going to in some very simple ways mirror that time in history that changed everything, transformed our world. Whatever we do has to have a link to, be a reflection of what will still be celebrated in our Churches, our Parishes and our Diocese. Simpler no doubt but beautiful nonetheless.

On Holy Thursday once Mass is over you might think about sitting down to a 'last supper' with Jesus and his disciples. Your meal could be simple: lamb, bread, wine (if you are an Adult or some special soft drink or juice bought for the occasion), a dish made of beans, olives and mint, some bitter herbs mixed with pistachios, some dates and a chunky fruit platter. Simple fare in keeping the meal Jesus himself would have eaten.

On Good Friday remember we do a bit of fasting, we don't eat meat and at 3 we stop for the Service. It would be good even if you can't view on line our Service or even get to channel seven and the Service in the Cathedral in Sydney to make sure you have ready your candle alight and your crucifix: we can still reverence at home the cross and what it means for us.

The Vigil is a celebration time. Again after Mass have a celebratory dinner. You can Skype or Facetime your friends and family, particularly family not able to be present. And say Grace: list the things, people and moments you are grateful for this Easter.

And whichever way you celebrate and mark Easter remember to pray for those who most need our support right now: not only the sick and the dying but those that work hard to care for them!! I love the picture I have added: I couldn't find its source but I love the connection between the Cross of Christ and the burdens being right now carried by so many.

I am hearing now about people who are struggling with mental health, are living with domestic situations that are difficult or abusive, of people really despairing of their situations. Some who are just not able at the moment to see a way forward; you might be one of them even. There are places that you can turn for help. If you do feel lost reach out, make a call and allow others to reach back.

Apart from the church there are wonderful places like Beyond Blue and Lifeline for you to speak to someone and get the support you need. Taking the first step is the hardest.

Easter is about getting through the darkness of the Tomb to the joy of the Resurrection and the life on offer as the Son rises.

Happy Easter: may your homes be made Holy by the love of that the Son has for you, may your friends be blessed by His love that you share with them, and may your family always know peace because you are all held in His love.

Yours in Christ,

Greg

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. By Pope Francis

We come to you with trust.

For you alone are our hope.
We place before you the disease present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.

Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.

Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.
Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you.

Prayer Resources for Individuals and Families

During this time of social isolation it is important that we pray and stay connected to our community. A range of online resources is available to support personal and family prayer at:

<https://www.mn.catholic.org.au/church-mission/catholic-life/liturgy/covid-19-supplementary-prayer-resources/>.

Additionally, LiturgyHelp is offering free access to its range of prayer resources at <https://liturgyhelp.com/aus/mn/pray>.

Sharing our story

Everyone has a story.

No matter how ordinary yours may seem, we've all got a story to tell and you never know what it can mean to someone until you share it.

As we enter a fallow period, we have been given the gift of time. A time to reflect on our life, a life of being faithful people. We invite you to share your story.

You could use the following questions as a guide.

- Who are the people who guided your faith journey? How did they do that?
- Describe some defining moments of your faith journey? What made them significant?
- How has your faith been reflected in your work, your hobbies, your values, your choices, and your priorities at various times in your life?
- In what ways has your faith guided and supported you over your lifetime? How has your church/faith community guided and supported you?

We hope to use the stories as part of a Diocesan Formation and Education project.

Please send your story to:

Electronic Planned Giving

We have simplified the direct debit or credit card planned giving process for those who are isolating and unable to print or drop forms in but who still want to give. We are now able to take the payment details over the phone and complete the form for you. We will record your phone number so that a CDF staff member can contact you and verify the request. You will also be able to indicate how much you would like allocated to the parish and how much to presbytery. If you would like to sign up for electronic planned giving please contact Danielle on 0459 342 981. Another way you can donate to the parish is through the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle website:

<https://www.mn.catholic.org.au/about/parish-payments/>

To claim a tax deduction on your donation you will need to provide your planned giving number, if you do not have a planned giving number please contact us and we will provide you with one.

Happy Easter from all at Caritas Australia!

Thank you for supporting us this year as we demonstrate how love and compassion for our global community can transform lives. You will be helping to empower the world's most vulnerable communities to grow stronger and share their strengths with their communities to lift themselves out of poverty.

When we Go Further Together in love and compassion, the whole world thrives.

Dear Parish Family,

I am praying the Rosary every day and would like to invite you to join me via Zoom.

If you install the App on your mobile phone we will be able to link up, see each other and pray the Rosary together. If you want to contact me : Monique: 0419 212 350 I would love to hear from you.

The Rosary above is almost 100 years old - it is a silver one that my dear Mum would have been given probably for her 1st Holy Communion. I polished it up and it is so beautiful and reminds me so much of the many times we as a family prayed the Rosary at difficult times - helped us through.

I must admit I have not prayed the Rosary very much of late, in fact not for quite a long time but am drawn to do so at this time of difficulty for so many of us. Technology today will allow us to still be together even though we are practising self-isolation.

Much love to you all and hope to hear from some of you.

Monique xxxx

When Giving Is All We Have

About this Poem

"This is a poem of thanks to those who live lives of service, which, I think, includes all of us—from the large measure to the smallest gesture, from care-giving to volunteerism to being an audience member or a reader. We give for so many reasons, and are bettered by it."

*One river gives
Its journey to the next.*

We give because someone gave to us.

We give because nobody gave to us.

We give because giving has changed us.

We give because giving could have changed us.

We have been better for it,

We have been wounded by it—

Giving has many faces: It is loud and quiet,

Big, though small, diamond in wood-nails.

Its story is old, the plot worn and the pages too,

But we read this book, anyway, over and again:

Giving is, first and every time, hand to hand,

Mine to yours, yours to mine.

You gave me blue and I gave you yellow.

Together we are simple green. You gave me

What you did not have, and I gave you

What I had to give—together, we made

Something greater from the difference.

READINGS 11/12 APRIL

First Reading

Acts 10:34. 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

We have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. v.24

(R.) Alleluia.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.' (R.)

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live
and recount his deeds. (R.)

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes. (R.)

Second Reading

Col 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Gospel

Jn 20:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The teaching of scripture is that he must rise from the dead.

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

APPENDIX: Keeping Sunday Holy – What Can We Do?

To assist individuals and families during this time, the Diocesan Liturgy Council has offered the following options, particularly in keeping Sunday holy:

Praying with the Sunday readings: Such prayer may take many forms including Lectio Divina and Liturgies of the Word in families or small groups. Parishes may like to download the 'Weekly Prayer Sheet' with the Sunday readings from LiturgyHelp and email it to parishioners.

The Prayer of the Church: We recommend morning and evening prayer to individuals and families. We suggest downloading the Universalis App which contains not only the Prayer of the Church but also the Mass of the day and many other things. See also: <https://liturgy.life/2020/03/keeping-sunday-holy-when-we-cannot-gather-for-mass-liturgy-of-the-hours/>

Recorded Homilies: The homilies of Bishop Bill or Fr Andrew from the Cathedral Mass on Sundays will be recorded and made available online by lunch time on Sundays. These may help in individual or small group reflections on the readings of the day. These homilies can be accessed via Spotify or iTunes.

Mass Streamed from Sacred Heart Cathedral: As already mentioned, the Diocese and Cathedral is currently investigating the possibility of livestreaming the Sunday Mass from Sacred Heart Cathedral celebrated by the Bishop or the Vicar General. Further information will be made available via the Diocesan website, which will also host the livestream if it becomes available.

The resources from LiturgyHelp can be of great assistance at this time in two significant ways:

This is the time to use LiturgyHelp to its fullest capacity. Make sure you are using your fifty part-username and logins for all your liturgical and pastoral ministers. Those who have access are encouraged to continue to reach out to members of the community during this time. For example, parish secretaries or Children's Liturgy ministers could download the resources under 'children' on the Sunday menu, and then send them to the families of children who would normally participate in Children's Liturgy, or to those who were enrolled in the sacramental journey.

Everyone in the diocese – individuals and families – can access a range of resources being made available through a special login. Parishioners should go to liturgyhelp.com/aus/mn/generalaccess, and enter their name and email address. This is for all people in communities connected to the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle and will be available from Midday on Friday 20 March.

The resources available on the special login access version of LiturgyHelp will grow over time and initially include:

Access to the daily readings

Access to the daily Missal texts

Sunday Prayer Services (Liturgy of the Word and weekly prayer sheets)

Sunday and Special Feasts Scripture Commentary

Sunday and Special Feasts Homily and Reflection

Sunday Universal Prayer

General prayer – traditional, prayers to our Lady and litanies.

Sunday Prayer of the Church (Divine Office) from 29 March (morning and evening prayer)

There will be the possibility for us to augment this section over time if that were needed.

A Moment To Reflect

This moment of crisis is for all people, especially people of faith, an opportunity. What is God revealing to us in this unusual moment of hunger for Eucharist? We believe in the centrality of the word of God to our lives as disciples and as a community of the faithful. This is an opportunity to immerse ourselves in the word and to deepen the way we abide in the Word. Who might we become over this time if we do turn to the Word of God as the primary source of our sustenance? We have largely ignored the treasure of the Prayer of the Church – primarily Morning and Evening Prayer. Who might we become if we prayed this prayer and became more familiar with the Psalms and the human cries we hear there?

Let us seize this opportunity so that when this moment is over we might return to our celebration of eucharist with a deeper love for it and a renewed sense of what it means to participate fully and consciously and actively in the Paschal Mystery and life of our Triune God
